

Curriculum Vitae

Academic Background: Postdoctoral Researcher in Law (UERJ). Ph.D. and Master's in Civil Procedural Law (PUC/SP). Visiting Research Scholar at Cardozo School of Law in New York, Max Planck Institute for International, European and Regulatory Procedural Law in Luxembourg and University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne. Professor at the Rio de Janeiro State University (UERJ). Professor in the Master's and Doctoral programs at the Fundação Getúlio Vargas (FGV/RIO) and Nove de Julho University (UNINOVE). Author of several scientific articles and coordinator of numerous collective works. Author of the following books, all published by the Revista das Tribunas: "General Repercussion: Historical, Dogmatic and Compared Law Perspectives – Procedural Issues", "Theory of Repetitive Appeals", "Principles of Law – Aggregate Litigation (Translator)" and "Special Appeal, Extraordinary Appeal and the New Function of Superior Courts in Brazilian Law".

Professional: Member of the Brazilian National Council of Justice – CNJ (2011-2013) and the National Council of the Brazilian Public Prosecutors' Office – CNMP (2009-2011), designated for both positions by the Federal Senate as a "citizen with remarkable legal knowledge and unblemished reputation". At the CNJ, was the President of the Federative and Parliamentary Articulation Committee and authored Resolution No. 156/2012, which established a "clean record" requirement for holding commissioned positions in the Judiciary. At the CNMP, chaired the Precedents and Administrative Control Committees, and authored the resolution establishing the "Transparency Portal of the Public Prosecutor's Office". Served for four years as the Head of the Federal Senate Advisory Office (2007-2011), elected by peers and appointed by the President of the Senate. For over a decade, Dantas was a legislative consultant to the Federal Senate, entering a career in civil procedural law in 2003 after passing a civil service examination consisting of tests and qualifications.

Contributions as a Legal Expert: Member of the Commission of Jurists set up by the President of the Federal Senate to draft a preliminary version of the new Brazilian Civil Procedure Code and the Commission of Jurists responsible for drafting a preliminary version of the Commercial Code. Presided over the Commission of Jurists responsible for the elaboration of proposals for the improvement of government management and the public administration control system. Member of the Working Group responsible for proposing enhancements to the Judiciary's performance in actions protecting collective and diffuse rights. Represented the Presidency of the Federal Senate in the Interinstitutional Management Committee of the Second Republican Pact.