

MINISTER WALTON ALENCAR RODRIGUES

Curriculum Vitae

Born: April 19, 1962.

Local of Birth: Goiânia, Goiás – Brazil.

Parents: Wilton Honorato Rodrigues and Maria Décia Alencar Rodrigues.

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

- LL.B. and Master of Public Law from the University of Brasilia
- “First” and “Proficiency in English” Certificates from the Cambridge University – England
- “Ceffal” certificate from the French-Brazilian Culture Association

MAIN PUBLISHED PAPERS:

- Pareceres, relatórios, votos e outros trabalhos especializados na Revista do Tribunal de Contas da União [Legal opinions, reports, votes and other specialized works on the Federal Court of Accounts Journal].
- Relatório e Pareceres Prévios sobre as Contas do Governo da República do Exercício de 2001 [Reports and preliminary reports on the Government Accountability of the Financial Year 2011].

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

- Chief of Staff of the Regional Labor Court of the 10th Region
- Legislative Analyst of the Federal Senate
- Administrative Law Professor at AEUDF
- He was approved on the civil examination for Legislative Advisor of the House of Representatives;
- Prosecutor at the Federal District Prosecutor’s Office.
- Attorney General in Brasilia- DF
- Chief Counsel and Regional Electoral Prosecutor at the Office of the Attorney General of the States of Acre and Tocantins
- Prosecutor, Assistant Attorney and Attorney General at the Office of the Public
- Prosecutor within the Federal Court of Accounts (Brazil), after approval, with the highest grades, by civil examination.
- President of the Serzedello Corrêa Award Judging Committee in 2003;
- Minister of the Federal Court of Accounts, since April 13, 1999;
- Vice-president and Magistrate of the Federal Court of Accounts i